Conditions of enrolment:

1. General Information

These Terms and Conditions govern the contractual relationship between the student and SUNLIGHT LANGUAGE SCHOOL SL, CIF B72528805, duly registered in Spain. Enrolment in any course implies full acceptance of these Terms and Conditions without reservation.

2. Object of the Contract

This contract regulates the provision of educational services consisting of Spanish and English language courses, delivered in on-site and/or online formats. These Terms and Conditions apply to all courses contracted with the school.

3. Applicable Law

The contractual relationship is governed by Spanish consumer protection legislation, the Spanish Civil Code, applicable educational regulations, and current visa regulations, together with the specific conditions applicable to each course.

4. Enrolment and Payment

Enrolment requires the submission of the requested personal and academic information. Full payment of the course fee must be completed prior to the start date of the course. Any bank charges or transfer fees shall be borne exclusively by the student.

5. Course Conditions

A placement test may be required prior to the commencement of the course in order to assign the appropriate level. The first coursebook is included in the course fee; additional materials may be required depending on the programme. SUNLIGHT reserves the right to replace teaching staff when necessary.

Classes are not held on weekends or official public holidays. The school remains closed during Christmas and Easter holidays. These closure periods are not recoverable and do not entitle the student to compensation or replacement classes.

A certificate of attendance shall be issued upon completion of at least 80% of the contracted course hours.

6. Attendance and Absences

Missed classes are not recoverable unless the absence is due to duly justified force majeure or cancellation attributable to the school. Non-recoverable absences do not entitle the student to any refund or compensation. Attendance is strictly limited to the contracted course period; class hours may not be accumulated, transferred, or extended beyond this period.

7. Group Organisation

If a group is reduced to five students or fewer, SUNLIGHT reserves the right to reorganise groups or propose alternative schedules, subject to availability.

8. Cancellations

Refunds shall only be issued when cancellation is directly attributable to SUNLIGHT. Cancellations for personal reasons do not give rise to refunds, except in exceptional cases expressly approved by SUNLIGHT at its sole discretion. The resale, transfer, or assignment of classes to third parties is strictly prohibited.

The detailed conditions regarding course cancellation and force majeure are set out in the student's enrolment document (matrícula).

Refund policy:

9. Visa Policy and Refunds

Visa applications submitted outside Spain

In the event of a visa refusal, SUNLIGHT shall refund the course fee, retaining €350 corresponding to enrolment and administrative costs, provided that the student submits the official visa refusal letter issued by the competent authority. The detailed refund conditions are set out in the student's enrolment document (matrícula).

Refund requests must be submitted within 60 days from the date of receipt of the refusal. Approved refunds shall be processed within 60 calendar days.

10. Jurisdiction

Any dispute arising from the interpretation or execution of these Terms and Conditions shall be subject to the competent Spanish courts corresponding to the registered office of SUNLIGHT LANGUAGE SCHOOL SL, without prejudice to the consumer rights recognised by applicable law.
